

OUR BOARD MEMBERS

• Chair of the Board – Anthony Arcari

• Chair of Audit and Risk Committee – Julie Rix

Julie has been a Board Member since 2019 and is also Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee.

Julie has worked in housing for 20 years, first at the Housing Regulator as a Financial Appraisal Manager and then in finance departments at Housing Associations.

Julie is a Chartered Accountant and worked in Audit for 10 years for a large accountancy firm. Julie currently works as Head of Finance at a Supported Living Charity.

• Chair of Remuneration and Governance Committee – Ian Hughes Bsc FRICS CIHCM

Ian was previously a Housing Association Group Chief Executive for over 20 years.

He has extensive knowledge and experience in community services and social housing.

He qualified as a Chartered Surveyor before holding a number of senior executive positions in local authorities and housing associations. He is currently a non-executive Board Member and Committee Chair with two other housing associations.

• Denise Shuker – Chief Executive

Denise Joined Trinity in September 2019 as Chief Executive and she is also a member of the Trinity Board.

Denise has vast experience in the social housing sector starting her career with Birmingham City Council and then moving into housing associations where she has been responsible for general needs and supported housing and was instrumental in developing an accommodation and support project for young people in Herefordshire.

She was a member of and chaired the Herefordshire Domestic Violence Forum and has also been a trustee and Chair of Herefordshire Citizens Advice. She is a qualified member of the Chartered institute of Housing.

• Peter Mullins – Finance Director

A professionally qualified senior finance leader, Peter has more than 25 years' experience in both commercial and public sector roles. Working at THA over the last 4 years has given him valuable exposure to and experience of a wide variety of factors outside a primarily driven financial role that impact the business and the environment that we operate in.

Being able to provide homes to the most vulnerable cross section of society has been by far the most enriching experience of his career to date. He finds it hugely rewarding being part of a team that helps vulnerable adults have the best quality of life possible and live independently.

When not working, Peter loves spending time with his family and escaping the hustle and bustle of life playing golf.

• Ann Bennet

Ann has held senior roles at a number of social landlords including Solihull Community Housing, Sandwell Homes, Worcester City Council and Birmingham City Council before retiring in 2017. She was also a Lead Housing Inspector with the Audit Commission.

As well as being on the Board at Trinity Housing Association, Ann is currently Chair of Community Housing as well as a Board Member at Kensington and Chelsea TMO and was previously the Chair of Wolverhampton Homes.

Ann is a member of the Chartered Institute of Housing and a CIH mentor.

• Azmat Mir

Azmat is a Chartered Surveyor with extensive knowledge and experience of Local Government commercial property portfolio's. He has worked with a number of Councils in the midlands across a range of disciplines and delivered major development schemes around Birmingham.

Azmat is also the Chair of Governors for his local school.

• Marie Henry

Marie is currently the CEO of Citizens Advice South Worcestershire covering advice and support needs from a number of offices throughout Malvern and Wychavon. Prior to this role, Marie was the Director of Neighbourhoods and Communities at BDHT in Bromsgrove responsible for the customer facing services to the 4,000 social housing tenants.

In her spare time Marie runs a community choir, is Vice Chair of a small charity that runs a community centre, tap dance, paint and write books (2 published so far).

Marie also loves looking after and playing with her grandchildren who keep her young and remind her to smile.

- Paul Riley

Paul is from the West Midlands and after university and early career in London moved back to Stourbridge, where he has lived for the past 30 years.

He has nearly 40 years' experience across a range of sectors improving outcomes, developing value chains, and growing businesses. During the last 20 years he has undertaken a range of executive and non-executive director roles in social purpose organisations, with a particular focus on children in care, education, mental health and learning disabilities fields.

Paul is currently an associate consultant with the Institute of Public Care, Oxford Brookes University and also provides advisory support on strategy, market and alliance development, and outcomes-based commissioning in the health and social care fields through his own advisory business.

He is passionate about raising aspirations and achieving social mobility, particularly for some of the most vulnerable people in society. He has been a University Governor with responsibility for widening participation; contributed to policy work on increasing the proportion of care leavers entering higher education; and has been an Institute of Directors business mentor for University of Wolverhampton undergraduates.

- Toby Railton

Before joining Catesby, Toby spent 5 years training as a Chartered Accountant as an Auditor at KPMG, with clients in the land promotion, affordable housing and housebuilding sectors.

He joined Barratt Homes in 2017 as Finance Manager before moving to Catesby as Head of Finance, and is responsible for managing all finance functions across the business.

Toby holds a BCS (Hons) in Accountancy from the University of Birmingham, and is a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland (ICAS).
